

The Oregonist.

United States and County Official Paper.
ST. HELENS, SEPTEMBER 2, 1892.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

County court meets next Wednesday.

Mrs. W. J. Muckle, of Rainier, is visiting in St. Helens.

W. H. Dolman is having his store building newly shingled.

The dance at Houlton last Friday night was a decided success.

W. D. Connell left Tuesday for Vancouver to attend the races.

Mrs. T. C. Watts, and daughter, Maud, are visiting in Portland this week.

Mrs. M. Richardson, of Portland, visited old friends in St. Helens last week.

The Oregon asylum has now 800 inmates, the most it has ever contained.

We are sorry to announce the very serious illness of Mrs. J. R. Beagle, at Hillsboro.

Mrs. Clear visited Thursday on a few weeks' visit to her daughter in Seattle, Wash.

The big fight between Sullivan and Corbett will take place at New Orleans next Wednesday.

J. H. Swager is enlarging his store room, preparatory to putting in a larger stock of goods.

Hon. Dean Blanchard, county judge, presided over the equalization board Monday and Tuesday.

E. H. Flagg, of Salem, has been quite sick for the past week at the residence of J. R. Beagle, at Giffon.

Muckle Bros' wharf is now a substantial structure, having been undergoing repairs for the past two weeks.

Mr. Dolman will astonish the ladies next week with a display of jackets never seen before in St. Helens.

Amos Slavens, Jr., of Giffon, is very sick at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Scott, of this place, with typhoid fever.

G. W. Cole is away in Idaho and Utah on business, and W. B. Dillard is wielding the legal scepter in their office alone now.

Mr. D. M. Dorsey, of Astoria, was a caller at THE MIST office Tuesday, and reports times looking up some what in his locality.

Mrs. W. D. Connell, of Deer Island, left last Tuesday for Astoria, where she went in hopes that the sea breeze would benefit her health.

The bridge across Milton creek at Houlton is now nearly completed. It will be a great convenience to the people living in that section.

Times are dull, but we must eat, drink, and wear much the same as ever. W. H. Dolman is stocking up nicely with fall and winter goods.

Property belonging to J. Jaquith, at Gubie, consisting of a hotel building, shoe shop, and private residence was burned to the ground on Sunday last.

R. Cox and family are snugly tucked away in their new dwelling house on the corner of Cowitz and Columbia streets, where the old house stood.

Assessor Wood finished his labor Tuesday evening and left for his home in Nehalem Wednesday morning. He has done a good work on the assessment roll.

This office acknowledges the receipt of a "complimentary" to the Portland Industrial Exposition, which commences on September 21st and ends October 22nd.

Hon. T. A. McBride was ill at the home of Mrs. Dolman, in this city, the first of the week, but is better now and has joined his family at "Camp McBride," below Columbia City.

St. Helens now presents a more lively appearance, caused by the return of Jas. Norton's crew of quarry men, who have been working at La Center, Wash., for the past two months.

The Portland Exposition has many new features this year, and promises to surpass any previous effort. However, there is still one thing lacking, and that is an exhibit from Columbia county.

The "tramp tourists," Howard and his wife, who passed through Portland early in March, reached Chicago last Sunday, having walked all the way from the Pacific Ocean to Lake Michigan.

Charley Blakesley, Henry Runz, and Walter Blakesley, left last Monday for Bunker Hill, where they will spend the week hunting and fishing. All the venison is contracted for by a Portland butcher.

The editor is at Hillsboro this week caring for his wife, who is very sick at that place, and will probably be absent for some time. In his absence the office is in charge of Mrs. Anna Richardson, who will endeavor to publish all the news obtainable, and any items of news sent in will be greatly appreciated.

There was a distant looking German woman sitting in the parlor at Judge Blakesley's hotel last Tuesday, and the inquisitive reporter, with unusual "gall" attempted to find out her troubles. It was soon learned that it was simply a common case of wife beating, and a warrant was procured from Judge Blakesley. Sheriff Massie went up to the ranch near Scappoose and escorted the man down, and he was tried Wednesday and fined; his fan cost him $35 and he went home poorer and wiser man. The wife will institute divorce proceedings through her attorneys, Dillard & Cole.

School begins next Monday. J. P. Looney arrived yesterday and is preparing the house and getting ready. Let everybody take notice, please, and let there be a good and regular attendance and a hearty co-operation of all the teachers, pupils and patrons. St. Helens will have a school that will well be proud of. No one wants to have to say he lives in a community where the children must be sent away to be educated. So let us be able to say we don't live in such a place, but that our schools are as good as the best, which we may do by hearty co-operation.

John C. Mason was brought before Circuit Judge McBride, at Chambers last Tuesday charged with a contempt of court. It appeared that Mason's wife had sued him for a divorce and that in that suit the judge had made an order requiring Mason to leave the residence and premises of his wife and to refrain from interrupting her in any way; which order, it was charged, the said John C. Mason had violated. The hearing of the matter was continued until the regular term of the circuit court, which meets in October.

Many years' practice have given C. A. Suw & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

Rev. A. B. Wade, of Hillsboro, has consented to come here and hold a protracted meeting, beginning next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. Rev. Wade is a very able man and has done good evangelical work all over the United States, and his sermons are very plain and exceedingly practical. We bespeak for the citizens of St. Helens a good meeting and confidently expect that much good will be done.

The Northern Pacific 6 o'clock evening train from Portland does not stop at any way stations between Scappoose and Gubie now, and as a consequence Judge McBride and E. H. Flagg were put to the expense of securing a rig at Scappoose last Sunday evening to bring them to their destination. Judge McBride coming to St. Helens and Mr. Flagg to Giffon.

Mr. W. J. Eastbrook is at present making a map of Columbia county, on a contract let by the county court at the last term. The map will show all the county roads, bridges, creeks and rivers, towns and section lines in the county, and when completed will be very useful to the people of the county. Mr. Kier, of Portland, is assisting on the work.

John Wilson, of Beaver Valley, met with a severe accident on Tuesday, his hand being fearfully mangled by an edge in Wilson's mill. He was taken to Rainier, accompanied by Dr. Belt, and left for Portland on the night boat. Drs. Saylor and Belt successfully operated on his hand in the Good Samaritan hospital on Wednesday.

GREAT BARGAINS—From September 5th to the 10th, during the week only, I will have on sale a splendid invoice of ladies' and children's jackets. These samples are from a Mammoth Eastern Cloth House. Splendid bargains. Slaughter prices. Respectfully, WM. H. DOLMAN.

A man in Eastern Oregon whipped his wife a short time ago, and was promptly harnessed by the citizens and severely cowed on his naked back, and then tarred and feathered and ordered to leave the country and never return again; he went.

The board of equalization of this county was in session Monday and Tuesday of this week. Very few changes were made by them, however, according to the assessor's roll.

S. A. Miles and daughter, Cora, left last Tuesday for a visit to relatives and friends in Missouri and other eastern states. They will be gone about a month.

Nancy Hanks, the queen of the turf, has again lowered her record, having trotted a mile in 2:05 1/2 at Independence, Iowa, last Wednesday.

Rev. A. B. Wade, pastor of the Christian church, at Hillsboro, was the guest of W. J. Rice and family part of this week.

Mrs. Daily, of Hillsboro, visited her husband at the St. Helens hotel this week.

Mrs. C. L. Colburn visited Portland Monday.

DIED.
As we go to press we received a telegram stating that Mrs. Mollie Beagle, wife of J. R. Beagle, died at the residence of her father in Hillsboro, Thursday morning. The funeral will take place this (Friday) afternoon.

THE ALLIANCE AS AN EDUCATOR.

COMMUNICATED.
EDITOR MIST—Pursuant to notice the people of Rainier, or a part of them, gathered at Deft's hall Saturday evening to listen to the alliance educators. Although ostensibly opposed to kings, queens, autocrats and aristocrats generally, a short man with a long beard by the name of King was chosen to rule over them during the evening, and after a fairly well executed waltz was rendered by way of an introductory exercise, a Mr. Darling arose and undertook the (to him) difficult task of explaining how and why he happened to be there, implying that in his opinion it was not yet time for the alliance to peacefully expire because the people need educating.

Next came Mr. Powell, of Pittsburg, a recent graduate of Monmouth, who labored to show the value of the alliance as an educator, leaving his hearers to infer that there is about as much need of supplementing our common school system with the alliance, as by the several nurseries now existing. A little applause was generously donated both speakers, which was doubled and trebled after the next piece of music was rendered, which shows the value of a violin in good hands to entertain the rank and file of the "great unwashed."

Next dropped their "Wal" of defense, (Waldrop), in the form of a little man whose cranium was generously shaded with boyish ringlets, and whose mouth looked as if it had been outraged by giving utterance to many false assumptions, and when it opened there issued forth a volley which reminded one of Dante's inferno. In order to hush himself furious he proceeded to read from Senator Dolph's speech a few well rounded rhetorical sentences, which seemed like an oasis in the Sahara of gibberish that followed. First denouncing republicans for not doing things to suit him, then severely scoring the democrats for doing nothing. He vainly endeavored to elevate himself and followers by pulling others down to his own level. Fearing lest there would be no enthusiasm, he would roar until he became purple in the face, endangering the expansive qualities of his collar, all the time vibrating his index finger like the rattles on the tail of a snake, except that the noise did not prove an audible warning to some of his hearers. Finally finding something John R. Jones said that did not exactly square with Dolph and Sherman, he seized himself by the boot straps and jumped to the conclusion that these old financiers were no longer safe leaders, and begged the voters to "turn the rascals out" and "give the boys a chance."

After thoroughly tiring his listeners, they all gladly adjourned except the few elect who remained to dissect a few watermelons, and throw the rinds through the new windows of the Hall. Thus ended the first lesson.

CONSIDER.

CARICO VALLEY.

Rain is much needed after the long dry spell.

Sabbath school was well attended last Sunday with quite a number of visitors. Among them were H. Howard, son and daughter, Miss Emerson from Devil's Lane, D. H. Pope from Briner's camp, and John Smith from Milton creek.

Wilford Miller has taken the job of night watch at Howard's mill.

Floyd Fowler is going to move to Columbia City soon.

D. R. Fowler has been quite poorly from having a lame back.

Eugene Weaver was out on his ranch yesterday.

A. A. Smith had the misfortune to find one of his work oxen dead last Wednesday. That is two oxen, one cow and one yearling heifer he has lost since moving on the ranch.

We learn that Mrs. C. E. Moyer has bought a fine organ.

Mrs. Pinckney and Mrs. Gaitan made Mrs. Jess Hendricks a pleasant visit Sunday.

BOYS.

JOHNS—In St. Helens, Wednesday, August 30th, to the wife of C. H. Johns, a son.
